Narrative: Complainant at front counter advises that her prescription of Oxycodone was taken from her residence. Complainant believes that her granddaughter or her granddaughter's cousin stole approximately 50 pills from her prescription bottle sometime during the last few days, while they were visiting. She does not desire prosecution or further police involvement at this time. She just wants the incident documented in case anything further happens. She also needs the incident documented to get a new prescription from the pharmacy. Advised.
