For 2013, Ms. Schickler would like to expand educational outreach, which could include strategies such as written materials, social media, and workshops/seminars open to all residents. Ms. Schickler plans to utilize the Cleveland Restoration Society for certain projects. She also inquired whether LHAB would make its already published written materials available and might be able to assist as outreach efforts are developed.

The Board members expressed their support for her efforts and those of LakewoodAlive, and Ms. Rudge volunteered to be the contact for the initiative.
