MORE THAN NAMES L-P

The United States entered the war, December 7, 1941. Surrender marking the end of World War II, came aboard the U.S.S. Missouri in Tokyo Bay, September 2, 1945.

The total number of Americans who lost their lives in World War II was 312,896. Another 672,483 were wounded. 12,780 were declared missing in action.

The total number who served in all branches was 13,104,555.

Lakewood War Casualties
World War II