

AGENDA

Clean Water Lakewood Workshop

October 23, 2018, 6 PM – 8 PM

Participants: Clean Water Lakewood Task Force, Lakewood Resiliency Task Force, Planning Commission, Board of Zoning Appeals, Architectural Review Board, Audit Committee, Community Advisory Committee, Keep Lakewood Beautiful, City Council, City Leadership and Staff, City Consultants and other community leaders

Purpose: Participants will be briefed on the history and the current state of Lakewood's management of combined sewer overflows; the current regulatory environment and potential future Clean Water Lakewood actions

6 p.m.

Introductions / Workshop Overview
Mayor Mike Summers

Introduce participants

Overview of our efforts during Oct. 23 and Nov. 15 Workshops

6:15 p.m.

Regulatory Landscape
Louis McMahon, McMahon DeGulis, LLP

Clean Water Act

Ohio EPA and US EPA regulatory efforts

What similar communities in the region have experienced

6:35 p.m.

Clean Water Lakewood History
Mayor Mike Summers

Overview of Lakewood's storm and sewer systems

Lakewood's efforts since 2003 to improve and control CSO's

6:55 p.m.

More Must be Done
Julia Lazar & Mark Delisio, CT Consultants, Inc.

Overflow Control Plan submittal on March 1, 2019

10 major projects may be needed

Private property storm and sewer source control

7:25 p.m.

Affordability Considerations
Joe Crea, Raftelis

Estimates for projects that may be required are near $275 million

Advocating for affordable solutions is critical to our community

7:40 p.m.

Wrap-up, Questions and Next Steps
Mayor Mike Summers

Community engagement is ongoing

Follow-up Workshop and Community Engagement Meetings:

Nov. 15 – Joint Task Force Workshop – 2 – 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Woman’s Club Pavilion, Lakewood Park

- Participants to engage in facilitated small group work to find workable, sustainable recommendations
- Narrow down options and seek input on disruption, private property issues and affordability

Dec. 4 – Community Conversations – 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

LHS Cafeteria, 14100 Franklin Boulevard

Workshop Participants invited to host roundtables to:

- Inform community members about Clean Water Lakewood
- Identify areas of consensus regarding private property needs
- Build understanding about future revenue needs and affordability related to projects required to meet regulations

Jan. 16 – Community Open House – 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

LHS Cafeteria, 14100 Franklin Boulevard

Workshop Participants asked to help invite public to:

- Improve understanding of stormwater and sewer systems
 - Get input on private property remediation and potential affordability impacts
 - Explain complex issues in an informal setting allowing for one-on-one discussions
-