

AGENDA

Clean Water Lakewood Joint Task Force Workshop

November 15, 2018, 6 PM – 8:20 PM

Participants: Clean Water Lakewood Task Force, Lakewood Resiliency Task Force, Planning Commission, Audit Committee, City Council, City Leadership and Staff, City Consultants

Purpose: Participants will break into small groups and work on assignments assisted by a facilitator. This workshop is intended to help gather input to narrow down options that best reflect community priorities.

6 p.m.

Welcome / Introductions
Mayor Mike Summers

Overview of our efforts during Oct. 23 Workshop
Introduce Meeting Facilitator

6:05 p.m.

Workshop Overview / Exercise Instructions
Melissa Elliott, Raftelis

Introduce Table Facilitators and Expert Roamers
Provide instructions for each round

6:10 p.m.

Round One – Prioritize Outfalls

6:40 p.m.

Round Two – Integration and Disruption Trade-offs

7:10 p.m.

Round Three – Private Property Concerns

7:40 p.m.

Round Four – Affordability

8:10 p.m.

Wrap-up / Walk Through Workshop Input
Melissa Elliott, Raftelis

8:15 p.m.

Thank you / Next Steps
Mayor Mike Summers

Dec. 4 – Community Conversations

Workshop Participants invited to host roundtables to:

-) Inform community members about Clean Water Lakewood
-) Identify areas of consensus regarding private property needs
-) Build understanding about future revenue needs and affordability related to projects required to meet regulations

Jan. 16 – Community Open House

Workshop Participants asked to help invite public to:

-) Improve understanding of stormwater and sewer systems
 -) Get input on private property remediation and potential affordability impacts
-
-